

DENIS BUNDY

INDEPENDENT FUNERAL CELEBRANT

To celebrate a life, to mourn
a death and to bring comfort
to the living.

DENIS BUNDY

I am a semi-retired Marketing Consultant and active Master of Ceremonies, Charity Auctioneer and After Dinner Speaker. Having undergone a comprehensive professional training programme, I also offer my services as an Independent Funeral Celebrant.

I have conducted funeral ceremonies in Crematoriums, Halls and Churches including Romsey Abbey and also officiated at Memorial Services in Hampshire, West Sussex and East Dorset. I offer a ceremony that is centred on the person who has died, truly reflecting their beliefs and may contain as much or as little emphasis on the spiritual or faith as the family would want.

MY ROLE INCLUDES:

- 🌸 An initial meeting with the family face to face including evening and weekend visits if necessary. If appropriate, I will be happy to telephone other family members that may not be able to attend the meeting.
- 🌸 Allow relatives and friends a greater contribution to the service and to share their feelings and memories.
- 🌸 Ensure that the ceremony is written to the wishes of the family including the eulogy and to deliver or assist a family member with the eulogy if required.
- 🌸 Assist with choices of music, hymns, readings, poetry, ritual and venues where needed.
- 🌸 Design and produce a quality Order of Service if required.
- 🌸 Truly reflect the persons religious beliefs if appropriate and also to properly reflect the views of those who have not lived according to religious principles or have accepted religious views of life or death.

TESTIMONIALS:

'A beautiful service in every way' – Elderly wife of the deceased

'You captured his life perfectly and the service was the celebration we all wanted – Daughter of the deceased

'We will never forget your kindness from our first meeting and the professional way you helped over 600 family, friends and colleagues celebrate his life that was all too short' – The family

'The whole service and in particular the eulogy and closing brought great comfort to me and my family' – Daughter of the deceased

To celebrate a life, to mourn
a death and to bring comfort
to the living.
